LEAD ANYTHING™

THE SCIENCE OF LEADING, ENERGISING, ACCELERATING
AND DRIVING;

INSPIRING LEADERSHIP

LEAD ANYTHING™

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

Lead Anything™ explores each individual's natural ability, developing leadership skills and emotional intelligence, so that they bring people with them on the journey and during periods of change.

Delivered in a unique and inspiring way, Lead Anything™ enables leaders and managers to become aware of, and understand, the options available to them to build their leading muscle, and to create a plan to develop their personal leadership style, and assist their teams to develop theirs.

Supported by case studies, personal stories, and facilitated discussion, together with individual reflection, participants develop strategies to increase trust, vulnerability and communication styles to underpin, rather than undermine, their team's ability to harness change for good.

THE SCIENCE OF LEADING, ENERGISING, ACCELERATING & DRIVING CHANGE

You and your team will have strategies for:

- ▶ Developing the core leadership skills so leaders bring people with them during periods of change
- ▶ Facilitating building the organisation's and team's values, behaviours, standards and expectations
- ▶ Understanding and harnessing the power of vulnerability
- ▶ Understanding key dimensions of trust, and the impact these have on the quality of leadership, and team results
- ▶ Developing emotional intelligence as a leader of change
- ▶ Understanding the levels of leadership every leader goes through, and their influence on change
- ▶ Developing conversational skills of being an influential leader
- ▶ Developing leadership thinking styles to create transformational change across culture, systems and people.
