

PART OF THE CHANGE ANYTHING™ CHANGE TRAINING SERIES

MOTIVATE ANYTHING™

THE SCIENCE OF MOTIVATION;
UNDERSTANDING YOUR UNIQUE
MOTIVATIONAL FINGERPRINT

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

Motivate Anything™ helps you understand what motivates you at work and what motivates the individuals in your team. It shortcuts the time it takes to get to know your remote or office team, and work better together virtually, and face-to-face.

Delivered in a unique and inspiring way, Motivate Anything™ enables everyone to understand their own and other's natural talents, identify and overcome blindspots, and unlock more energy, motivation and fulfilment. By improving team dynamics, understanding your team culture, you'll be able to create an awesome team environment, and unlock untaped potential.

Supported by case studies, personal stories, and facilitated discussion, together with individual reflection, participants develop strategies to increase their ability to underpin, rather than undermine, their team's ability to deliver results.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR UNIQUE MOTIVATIONAL FINGERPRINT

You and your team will develop your understanding of:

- ▶ What drives your behaviours, how you make decisions, like to receive information, learn, why you make the decisions that you do
- ▶ What your natural talents are, what motivates you at work, and why that's important
- ▶ What potential blindspots you have, that if addressed could change your experience, and your results
- ▶ How to run "field experiments" to develop areas that are blindspots
- ▶ How to improve the human dynamics of collaboration
- ▶ How to work better with an office-based or virtually with a remote team
- ▶ What your team culture is by creating a team culture map
- ▶ How to improve your team culture
- ▶ Benchmark your (and your team's) motivations against the world's top performers, so you know exactly where to focus your energy to make it to the top.
